Discussion – Facilities Constructed Downtown Revitalization Grant

Mayor Marklin discussed with the board the restroom facility in the downtown area. The board needs to decide on details for the facility whether it needs to be a square or rectangle building and how it should be placed on the parcel. Two plans were submitted to the board. Interim Manager Wood brought ideas to the board in reference to heating, automatic lights, faucets and water closets and provisions for cameras. Brick was decided as the façade and a metal roof. Provisions for the town seal and flagpoles were discussed. Also the types of locks for the facilities were discussed.

After some discussion, a motion was made by Commissioner Johnny Frye to go ahead with Plan #2 which is the square plan that was submitted to the board. The motion was seconded by Commissioner Lash Sanford and approved by a unanimous vote.

Discussion – Hiring of a Firm to Recruit a New Town Manager

Interim Manager Wood stated that he has talked with Steve Straus the owner of Developmental Associate Services. The amount of his service would be $15,000.00. Mike Ruffin is associated with this service and Mr. Straus is willing to let Mr. Ruffin come in and help with the search and advertising of a new manager and the interviewing. The price from Mike Ruffin would be $8000.00. Wood also received a proposal from the COG. They would go through the same process. The price from the COG would be $6000.00.

A motion was made by Commissioner Johnny Frye to go with the COG for the recruiting of a new Town Manager. The motion was seconded by Commissioner Rob Taylor and approved by a unanimous vote.

Adjourn

A motion was made by Commissioner Johnny Frye to adjourn the November 17, 2016 Special Called Meeting. The motion was seconded by Commissioner Brent Ward and approved by a unanimous vote.
