

Senior Services Meeting and Activity Update

Davie County seniors are invited to "meet" with Davie County Commission ers and town representatives from Bermuda Run, Cooleemee, and Mocksville on Thursday, January 21st, at 1:00 p.m.

Anyone over the age of 55 is invited to join in via Zoom, phone (toll-free number), or parking lot radio.

This will be a time to ask all of your questions plus voice suggestions, concerns, or praises.

Contact Davie County Senior Services at 336-753-6230 to sign up for this event and let them know if you will be attending via parking lot or Zoom.

Senior Services Planning Eventful 2021!

This is just one of the many events Davie County Senior Services has planned for 2021! Although the building remains closed to the public, those 55 and older are invited to come out and participate in a host of virtual events and seminars and parking lot activities, drive-thru parties, and parking lot radio specials.

The New Year kicked off with a month-long poetry contest, car bingo on January 5, a Zoom cross-stitch activity on January 8, and a drive-thru party for January birthdays on January 13.

Senior Services' own Kelly Sloan will present a Caregiving Seminar on Facebook Live for those who are caring for their loved ones. She will talk about respite – what it is and why it is important and will share the basics of caregiving. This is open to all ages and will be on Davie County Senior Services' Facebook page on Tuesday, January 26, at 2 p.m.

Action-Packed February Calendar

February is shaping up to have a full calendar of events as well. It will feature a month-long knitting contest, a drive-thru February birthday party, an origami heart Valentine's Day craft, a drive-thru Valentine's Day party, adult coloring sheets for Mardi Gras, plus coffee and coloring Zoom social hour with Senior Services' staff.

The annual Black History Month celebration is still happening, and this year it will be a two-part event! Lastly, February will end with a senior games fun day and open house which will be held at the Davie County Community Park (site of the Old Davie High School). Keep an eye out for more details regarding dates and times of events, healthcare seminars, and exercise classes coming your way in 2021.

Senior Services invites older adults to send in ideas for new programming that can be done virtually or as a drive-thru. Call 336-753-6230 for more information or to sign up for activities.

Stay Up-to-Date with Online Calendars

A current calendar is posted on the Davie County Senior Services Facebook page and website. Be sure to like and share the Facebook page to let others know about everything happening at Senior Services!

Sign Up for Notifications

You can now subscribe to their reminder service. You will receive a reminder for things such as the deadline to register for large events.

Resource Guide

The Community Resource Guide for Older Adults in Davie County is a listing of resources available for older adults in the county. If you find any errors regarding contact information or know of other resources that should be included, please contact Davie County Senior Services. Click on the link below to view the guide. It is also available under the Services tab on our website. Access the Community Resource Guide.

Learn More About Davie County Senior Services

It is the mission of Davie County Senior Services to provide seniors with accessible services and opportunities for fellowship, fun, and learning through activities and programs that enrich lives. The Davie County Senior Center is located at 278 Meroney St, Mocksville, NC 27028. The phone number is 336-753-6230.

Photos courtesy of Davie County Senior Services.

